INDEX

The names of contributors are printed in SMALL CAPITALS ; subjects treated in ordinary type; titles of books reviewed, in italics

Admission, A new plan of, to Harvard College, 71; to college, Lack of uniformity in the history requirements for, 516
American commonwealth, The university president in, 433
American scholarship, 234
American teacher's year in a Prussian gymnasium: a reply, 88
American teaching, Contributions to the history of, 346
Angell's (Emmett D.) Play, 315
Arts (manual), The place of, in education, 245

BALDWIN, CHARLES SEARS.—Intercollegiate debate, 475
Baltimore school situation, 325, 518
BENNETT, CHARLES A.—The place of manual arts in education, 245
Bergson, Professor, 538
Bernard Shaw on education, 533
Bible, The, 48; in the schools, 109
Board of Education (New York), 429; Should New York have a paid, 204, 322
Boston, schools of, Investigation of, 506
Botany in the college course, 376
Brown, Dr. Elmer Ellsworth, 105
Brown's (John Franklin) The training of teachers for secondary schools, 308
Business men and the classics, 304

CARROLL, CLARENCE F.—Angell's (Emmett D.) Play, 315
Certificate system in New England, 486
Chance and man, 388
Changes in entrance requirements at the University of Chicago, 186
Childs's (Richard S.), Short ballot principles, 523
Classics, and the business men, 304
College course, Botany in, 376
College, admission to, Lack of uniformity in the history requirements for, 516; (larger), The problem of, 79; presidents, 431; regulation of fraternities, 91; studies and professional training, 217
Colleges, and high schools, 431
Columbia University lectures, 196
Commissioner of Education, 106
Common sense and the elective system, 367
Commonwealth (American), The university president in, 433
Continuation school, The significance of, for the educational system and the educational ideal of Germany, 1
Contributions to the history of American teaching (VII), 346
Course (college), Botany in, 376
Current educational publications, 85, 183, 302, 412, 504

DAVIS, C. O.—Reorganization of secondary education, 270
Debate, Intercollegiate, 475
Degree of doctor of philosophy in history, A suggested requirement for, 191
Degrees (Honorary) at the universities, 203
Deutsche Volksbildungsarbeit, 432
Discussions, 88, 186, 304, 506
Doctor of philosophy in history, the degree of, A suggested requirement for, 191

Echoes from San Francisco, 212
Education and pay of head and hand, 450
Education, Bernard Shaw on, 533; The Commissioner of, 106; Should New York have a paid board of, 204, 322; The place of manual arts in, 245; (secondary) Reorganization of, 270
Educational system and the educational ideal of Germany, The significance for, of the continuation school, 1
Educational publications, Current, 85, 183, 302, 412, 504

JUN 15 1912

Educators (Some helpful), 20
Elective system, and common sense, 367
ELIOT, CHARLES W.—Contributions to the history of American teaching, (VII), 346; The university president in the American commonwealth, 433
England and Wales, National Union of, of Teachers, 54
Entrance requirements, Changes in, at the University of Chicago, 186
Evolution (literary), The study of, 148
Exchange (Intra-national) of teachers, 60

Failure (a)? Is spelling, 170
Farrand's (Max) Records of the Federal Convention of 1787, 417
FARRINGTON, FREDERICK ERNEST.—National Union of Teachers of England and Wales, 54
FITZPATRICK, FRANK A.—Investigation of the schools of Boston, 506; Monroe's (Paul) A cyclopedia of education, 421
Football: an impossible intercollegiate sport, 162
Foster's (William T.) Administration of the college curriculum, 414
Fraternities, The college regulation of, 91; and sororities in state-supported institutions, 512

Germany, The significance of the continuation school of, for the educational system and the educational ideal, 1
Gordon's (Henry Evarts) Vocal expression in speech, 529
GRAY, HENRY DAVID.—The poor professor, 29
Guitteau's (William B.) Government and politics in the United States, 423
GUNDELACH, ARTHUR.—An American teacher's year in a Prussian gymnasium, 88
Gymnasium (Prussian), An American teacher's year in (a reply), 88
Hand, and head, Education and pay of, 450
Harrington's (Karl Pomeroy) Live issues in classical study, 199
Harvard College, admission to, A new plan of, 71
Head and hand, Education and pay of, 450
HEETER, S. L.—The school of tomorrow, 465
Helpful educators, 20
High schools and colleges, 431
History of American teaching, Contributions to, 346
History requirements, Lack of uniformity in, for admission to college, 516
History, the degree of doctor of philosophy in, A suggested requirement for, 191
Honorary degrees at the universities, 203

Ideal (educational) and the educational system of Germany, The significance for, of the continuation school, 1
Important sayings that are not so, 211
Impossible intercollegiate sport: Football, 162
Institutions (state-supported), Fraternities and sororities in, 512
Intercollegiate debate, 475
Intercollegiate sport (An impossible): Football, 162
Intra-national exchange of teachers, 60
Investigation of the schools of Boston, 506
Is spelling a failure? 170

JESSE, RICHARD HENRY.—Some helpful educators, 20
JONAS, J. B. E.—Intra-national exchange of teachers, 60

Kelsey's (Francis W.) Latin and Greek in American education, 524
KEPPEL, FREDERICK P.—Foster's (William T.) Administration of the college curriculum, 414; Slosson's (Edwin E.) Great American universities, 97
KNAPP, CHARLES.—Harrington's (Karl Pomeroy) Live issues in classical study, 199; (Kelsey's (Francis W.) Latin and Greek in American education, 524

Lack of uniformity in the history requirements for admission to college, 516
Language and literature, Lord Morley on, 395
Larger college, The problem of, 79
Literature and language, Lord Morley on, 395
Literary evolution, The study of, 148
LOWELL, A. LAWRENCE.—College

studies and professional training, 217
Lowell's (President) statistics, Significance of, 514
Lord Morley on language and literature, 395

Man, and chance, 388
MANN, C. R.—Changes in entrance requirements at the University of Chicago, 186
Manual arts, The place of, in education, 245
MATTHEWS, BRANDER.—The study of literary evolution, 148
Men (Business) and the classics, 304
Monroe's (Paul) A cyclopedia of education, 421
MOORE, CLIFFORD H.—A new plan of admission to Harvard College, 71
Morley (Lord) on language and literature, 395
MOSES, A. J.—Tutton's (A. E. H.) Crystals, 310
MOWRY, DUANE.—Fraternities and sororities in state-supported institutions, 512
MUSSEY, H. R.—Education and pay of head and hand, 450

National Union of Teachers of England and Wales, 54
New York Board of Education, 204, 322, 429
New England, The certificate system in, 486
New (A) plan of admission to Harvard College, 71
New United States Commissioner of Education, 210
NICOLSON, FRANK W.—The certificate system in New England, 486
NORSWORTHY, NAOMI.—Row's (Robert Keable) The educational meaning of manual arts and industries, 313
Notes and news, 105, 203, 322, 429, 533
Notes on new books, 102, 201, 317, 427, 530

OLDFATHER, W. A.—Common sense and the elective system, 367

Paid board of education in New York, 204, 322
Pay, and education, of head and hand, 450
PERRY, E. D.—Thwing's (Charles Franklin) History of education in the United States since the Civil War, 99
Place of manual arts in education, 245
Plan (A new) of admission to Harvard College, 71
Poor professor (The), 29
PORTER, DAVID R.—Football: an impossible intercollegiate sport, 162
President Lowell's statistics, Significance of, 514
President (University) in the American commonwealth, 433
Presidents (College), 431
PRETTYMAN, VIRGIL.—Lack of uniformity in the history requirements for admission to college, 516
Problem (The) of the larger college, 79
Professional training and college studies, 217
Professor (The poor), 29
Prussian gymnasium, An American teacher's year in (a reply), 88
Publications (Current educational), 85, 183, 302, 412, 504

Quantitative study of reading, 254

Regulation (College) of fraternities, 91
Reorganization of secondary education, 270
Requirement (A suggested) for the degree of doctor of philosophy in history, 191
Requirements (entrance), Changes in, at the University of Chicago, 186
Requirements (history), Lack of uniformity in, for admission to college, 516
Reviews, 97, 196, 308, 414, 523
RICHARDS, HERBERT M.—Botany in the college course, 376
Row's (Robert Keable) The educational meaning of manual arts and industries, 313

SACHS, JULIUS.—Brown's (John Franklin) The training of teachers for secondary schools, 308
Sadler, Vice-Chancellor, 538
SAIT, E. M.—Guitteau's (William B.) Government and politics in the United States, 423
San Francisco, Echoes from, 212
Sayings (Important) that are not so, 211
Scholarship, American, 234

XUM

School (Baltimore) situation, 325, 518
School (continuation), The significance of, for the educational system and the educational ideal of Germany, 1
School of tomorrow, 465
Schools, The Bible in, 109; (Boston) Investigation of, 506
SCHUYLER, ROBERT LIVINGSTON.—A suggested requirement for the degree of doctor of philosophy in history, 191; Farrand's (Max) Records of the Federal Convention of 1787, 417
SCOTT, FRED NEWTON.—Columbia University lectures, 196
Secondary education, Reorganization of, 270
Shaw (Bernard) on education, 533
SHAW, ESTHER E.—Is spelling a failure?, 170
SHOREY, PAUL.—American scholarship, 234
Should New York have a paid board of education?, 204
Significance of the continuation school for the educational system and the educational ideal of Germany, 1; of President Lowell's statistics, 514
Situation, Baltimore school, 325, 518
Slosson's (Edwin E.) Great American universities, 97
SMITH, WM. HAWLEY.—Chance and man, 388
Sororities, and fraternities, in state-supported institutions, 512
Spelling a failure?, 170
SPRANGER, EDUARD.—The significance of the continuation school for the educational system and the educational ideal of Germany, 1
State-supported institutions, Fraternities and sororities in, 512
Statistics (President Lowell's) Significance of, 514
STRAYER, GEORGE DRAYTON.—The Baltimore school situation, 325, 518
Studies (College) and professional training, 217
Study of literary evolution, 148
Suggested requirement (A) for the degree of doctor of philosophy in history, 191
System (certificate) in New England, 486
System (educational) and the educational ideal of Germany, The significance for, of the continuation school, 1
System (elective) and common sense, 367

TASSIN, ALGERNON.—Gordon's (Henry Evarts) Vocal expression in speech, 529
TAYLOR, JAMES M.—The problem of the larger college, 79
TAYLOR, JOSEPH S.—Quantitative study of reading, 254
Teachers, Intra-national exchange of, 60; National Union of, of England and Wales, 54
Teacher's (American) year in a Prussian gymnasium: a reply, 88
Teaching (American), Contributions to the history of, 346
That paid board of education in New York, 322
Thwing's (Charles Franklin) History of education in the United States since the Civil War, 99
Tomorrow, School of, 465
Training (Professional) and college studies, 217
Tutton's (A. E. H.) Crystals, 310

Uniformity, Lack of, in the history requirements for admission to college, 516
Union (National) of Teachers of England and Wales, 54
United States Commissioner of Education, The new, 210
Universities, Honorary degrees at, 203
University of Chicago, Changes at, in entrance requirements, 186
University president in the American commonwealth, 433

Vice-Chancellor Sadler, 538
Volksbildungsarbeit (Deutsche), 432

Wales and England, National union of, of Teachers, 54
WALLIS, WILSON D.—Significance of President Lowell's statistics, 514
Whipple's (Guy Montrose) Manual of mental and physical tests, 426
WHITLEY, M. T.— Whipple's (Guy Montrose) Manual of mental and physical tests, 426
Why? 539

XUM